Telecommunications Regulatory Commission Investigation Notice Concerning Mobile Voice Calls to Specific Caribbean Destinations

14810 TAKE NOTICE THAT:

The Telecommunications Regulatory Commission, (the “Commission”) is responsible for ensuring fair competition in the telecommunications sector in the Virgin Islands (“VI”). Under the Telecommunications Act, 2006, (the “Act”) the Commission is required to carry out, on its own initiative or at the request of any person, investigations concerning conduct which may be contrary to the provisions of the Act. The Commission is now notifying the general public that it is investigating a possible breach of fair competition in the VI.

A complaint has been raised by Caribbean Cellular Telephone Ltd (“CCT”), (the “Complainant”) against Digicel (BVI) Ltd<sup>1</sup> (“Digicel”), (the “Defendant”) concerning CCT’s ability to replicate the retail price that Digicel charge to their customers for calls to networks of Digicel’s affiliates in the Caribbean due to the wholesale price Digicel charge CCT to terminate calls on networks of Digicel’s affiliates in the Caribbean. After reviewing the complaint and conducting a preliminary review of the issues involved, based on the arguments and evidence presented by CCT as well as information submitted by Digicel, the Commission considers it appropriate to investigate the practices of Digicel in relation to wholesale and retail tariffs for calling certain Caribbean destinations – i.e., networks operated by Digicel’s affiliates.

The Complainant has stated that the wholesale rate that CCT pays to Digicel to terminate a call on Caribbean networks of its affiliates<sup>2</sup> does not allow CCT to replicate Digicel’s Caribbean plans<sup>3</sup> and offer calls to these specific Caribbean destinations at the same price to its customers as Digicel can to their customers. A key competitive concern in the VI telecoms market would be that Digicel through its relationship with its affiliates in other Caribbean countries and territories could benefit from wholesale costs which are far below those available to CCT. Such a situation may have an effect of creating uneven competitive conditions in the VI market by restricting ability of CCT to compete for certain user segments and thereby undermine operation of fair competition and user interests.

The purpose of this investigation is to establish whether it is appropriate for the Commission to take action on the grounds that:

- 1) Digicel is carrying on or likely to carry on business in a manner that is detrimental to the public interest, including in an anti-competitive manner, or detrimental to the interest of clients (pursuant to section 75(1)(a)(iii) of the Act); and/or
- 2) Digicel’s practices constitute anti-competitive pricing or acts of unfair competition (pursuant to section 29(2)(c) of the Act); and/or
- 3) Digicel’s practices constitute an infringement of articles 10.1(e) and/or 10.2 of Digicel’s Licence (pursuant to section 75(1)(a)(vi) of the Act).

In the course of the investigation, the Commission may also consider whether it is appropriate to take any other action pursuant to sections 6 (d) and 77 (2) of the Act.

Under section 70 of the Act, the Commission has the power to request information from a licensee where it appears that the licensee may have contravened the Act or any term or condition of the licence or it is reasonably required for the purpose of discharging functions of the Commission or ensuring compliance with the Act or any term or condition of a licence. The Commission is therefore requesting the information set out in annex 1 from Digicel<sup>4</sup> - the information shall be provided within 30 days from publishing this Notice in the Gazette. Separately the Commission will also be seeking information from CCT. Furthermore, the Commission has a right to obtain information from other persons as required. The Commission shall provisionally adopt this timetable:
